Title: Counsel

Mobile: +358 50 433 9026

E-mail: riikka.kuha@hannessnellman.com

Languages: English, Finnish

Riikka specialises in the fast-evolving field of corporate sustainability and Environmental, Social, and Governance (ESG) law, with a special focus on corporate governance and compliance, commercial contracts, ESG due diligence, and supply chain risk assessment. Riikka advises clients on navigating and staying ahead of the rapidly increasing ESG compliance obligations and recommendations and on incorporating sustainability into corporate strategy, policies, and operations.

Riikka coordinates our cross-practice ESG activities, ensuring a cohesive approach in the multifaceted and interlinked ESG legal landscape. She is passionate about identifying and finding solutions to risks and opportunities for companies seeking sustainable business practices. Additionally, she is a frequent lecturer at external and internal events and education programmes on topics related to corporate sustainability and ESG.

Riikka has extensive experience in both domestic and cross-border M&A transactions, and she regularly advises clients on foreign direct investment (FDI) screening processes. In 2021, she worked on a secondment at a Finnish listed company, advising on a wide range of corporate law and contract negotiation matters and supporting the company's post-M&A integration process following its acquisition by an American Fortune 500 company.
