Isabelle is an experienced dispute resolution lawyer and advises clients on all matters relating to commercial disputes, with a focus on Swedish and international arbitrations as well as litigations before Swedish local courts. She regularly assists clients with risk analysis and risk management in connection with ongoing disputes as well as for the prevention of future disputes.

Isabelle has acted as counsel for numerous Swedish and foreign clients in institutional arbitrations, for example under the SCC's rules for ordinary as well as expedited proceedings. Isabelle has advised and represented clients in disputes relating to, inter alia distribution and agency, IT, trademarks, general commercial agreements and shareholder disputes.
